

N. Murray Edwards: Alumnus, friend, namesake

MR. EDWARDS HAS had a long-standing relationship with the University of Saskatchewan's business school as a student, alumnus and donor. He believes strongly in the value of a business education. Over the years, he has given back to his alma mater so students today continue to receive an outstanding business education at the University of Saskatchewan.

In June 2000, when the PotashCorp Centre addition was opened, the N. Murray Edwards Case Room was unveiled. One of several smart rooms in the centre, the case room seats 75 students, is equipped with up-to-date educational technologies and is used by faculty and students across campus.

Throughout his university years in Saskatoon, Mr. Edwards had a keen interest in investing. On October 3, 2002 he rang the official bell and the N. Murray Edwards MarketWatch went live. This stock ticker board, installed on the main floor of the PotashCorp Centre, still provides continuous stock and commodity information, bringing the business world to the halls of the business school. Faculty, staff and especially students benefit from the direct link to the investment industry.

On July 24, 2007, the University of Saskatchewan very proudly acknowledged Mr. Edwards' continued relationship with the business school by transforming the College of Commerce to the N.

Murray Edwards School of Business. Mr. Edwards' investment in the business school allows us to gain recognition with our new brand and helps to position the business school as one of the top five in Canada.

At the University's Spring Convocation Ceremony on June 2nd, 2011, Mr. Edwards was presented with an Honorary Doctorate of Laws degree, the highest honour the University of Saskatchewan can bestow.

Mr. Edwards continues to remain truly engaged in the activities of the business school, supporting the George S. Dembroski Student-Managed Portfolio Trust and acting as judge and keynote speaker at the 2013 National Mining Competition. He also gives his time and knowledge by serving on the Edwards School of Business Dean's Advisory Council.

The students, faculty and staff of the Edwards School are grateful for Mr. Edwards' continued support.

The Edwards School of Business congratulates Mr. Edwards on his latest achievement. In May 2015 Mr. Edwards was inducted as a Companion of the Order of the Canadian Business Hall of Fame. This is the highest honour of its kind in Canadian business.
