

Words of Wisdom

December 2016 Final Season

Four things that really make a difference:

1. Knowing how to work hard...and being smart about it.
2. Integrity is one of the most important cornerstones for success in everything you do.
3. Strong interpersonal skills are essential.
4. The world belongs to those who are optimistic.

Scott McCreath
B.Comm. 1969

"The harder I've worked, the luckier I got."

Greg Yuel
BA 1993

"I thought the homework would end after university. It doesn't. Good news is now I get paid a lot of money to do it!"

Ryan Townend
B.Comm. 1999

- Gain a place among the best.
- Let your dreams stay big and your worries stay small.
- No matter how you feel Get Up, Dress Up, Show Up and Never Give Up!

Shelley Brown
B.Comm. 1978

Here is one I made up and use when mentoring:
“Everyone follows the leader who cleans the toilets first.”

Or from Star Wars when Yoda is teaching Luke the power of the “force” and Luke says I will try.
Yoda replies – “Try not, do or do not, there is no try.”

Gord Haddock
B.Comm. 1972

“Study hard but don’t underestimate the power of a good night’s sleep the night before a final.”
Chris Hengen-Braun
B.Comm. 2011

Keep in mind that, down the road, the fruits of your studies will be an enhanced "SNACK-BRACKET".
Mike Rushby
MBA 1991

“When choosing a waiting line... Your friend and mine – serpentine.”
Interim Dean Keith Willoughby
B.Comm. 1990

“In the future, the thing you’ll remember most isn’t the long nights of studying but the end result of where your education takes you. Make it count.”
Colton Wiegiers
B.Comm. 2016

- “This too shall pass.”
- “Do it today!”
- “Just start.”
