Appreciative Leadership

USING POSITIVE APPROACHES TO CREATE RESULTS AND A STRONG TEAM

INTRODUCTION & BACKGROUND

Appreciative Leadership is the capacity to mobilize creative potential and turn it into positive power—to set in motion positive ripples of confidence, energy, enthusiasm, and performance.

This course will explore the five strategies of the Appreciative Leadership Model and how a leader can fully engage their team through powerful, positive questions and strengths-focused leadership practices. Participants will engage in practical and interactive activities to experience the mental shift involved in an “appreciative flip” and try out actionable tools to strengthen their leadership.

KEY LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Learn how to turn creative potential into positive power
- Learn about cutting-edge research and the mind shifts occurring in workplaces
- Gain practical tools to put into action at individual, one-on-one, and team levels
- Explore appreciative practices that provide space for individuals and teams to transform their work
